

Appreciation

We, the family of the late Margaret Wambui Njaaga, wish to express our deepest and most heartfelt gratitude to all who stood with us during our time of sorrow. Your comforting words, prayers, visits, calls, and acts of kindness have given us strength and comfort when we needed it most. Losing a loved one is never easy, but your love and support reminded us that we are not alone. Each gesture — whether big or small — was a light in our darkest moments, and we are truly humbled by your compassion.

Tributes

Tribute from Children

Our beloved mother, words can never fully capture what you meant to us. You were our home, our strength, and our first true friend. In your eyes, we found peace; in your hands, we found comfort; and in your heart, we found unconditional love. You taught us to walk in faith, to love without limits, and to face life's storms with courage and grace. Even in your silence, you spoke volumes — through your humility, your patience, and your quiet strength. You built a legacy not of wealth or possessions, but of love, unity, and compassion. Now that you are gone, we realize that your presence was the glue that held our world together. We will miss your gentle voice, your laughter that filled our hearts, and your prayers that carried us through every season. Rest well, dearest mother. You have fought a good fight, finished the race, and kept the faith. Your light will continue to shine in us forever.

Tribute from Grandchildren

Grandma, your love was a shelter — warm, unending, and pure. You were a fountain of wisdom, a keeper of family stories, and the heartbeat of our home. Every visit to you was filled with laughter, stories, and lessons we didn't even realize we were learning. You had a way of making each of us feel special — like we were your favorite — and perhaps, we all were. Your prayers, your smiles, your gentle hands, and your soft-spoken words will echo in our memories for all time. We will carry your values of kindness, humility, and faith in all that we do. Though you may no longer be here with us in body, your spirit remains — guiding us, protecting us, and reminding us to love deeply, just as you did.

Rest in eternal peace, Grandma.

Your love will forever be our inheritance.
